Clash concert called off again

Warm tribute to tragic poet

Ex-manager says firm

was 'shambolic'

Wine bar

plan for

Westhill

Grampian Hospital Radio

Stramo were to be to be

By LINDSEY BARRIE

who came for a holiday to give the relatives they lived with a Allachburn was built on the short break: It would provide somewhere for elderly oebole hospide shops and station at the sta

'Family' home for the elderly

Quarry gets green light

Art college staff sweep boards in Development

goes on status fight

Teaching appointments

GRAMPIAN Regiona Council's education depart

Shell contest

Cove man guilty of making indecent calls

ELECTRICAL, engineer Ronald Singer was found guitty yesterday of making a series of indecent phone calls to women, almost all of whom live in the West-hill area. Sheriff Muir Russeli told him at Aberdeen Sheriff court there

No' to taxi advertising signs

Red Cross

appeal

Certificates for library assistants

Insch Bridge Club pair go nap

Youth in court

Kennethmont pair's gift

May Day holiday has cold outlook

Holiday time FUALLY the whole of the th and North-east are ng Monday as a public Tuesday, May 4,

dweller

instead of being moves in the control of the planning application (if dwelling, which consists several carravans linked gether, to the first meelin the new country planning partment has been the planning partment has been the planning partment has been the per councilions to agree to a citin against the than. Dominic Chinatella, for sit the planning of month the issue was deen and yesterday councillors trued to go and the planning of the plan

Reprieve

for caravan

Louise of Cults

May Day Holiday

Open 11 a.m. - 5 p.m. Sizes 8-20 479 North Deeside Road, Cults

McEWAN FINE ART

Wild Flowers of Scotland

With thanks to D.C. Thomson & Co. Ltd. Digitised by Findmypast Newspaper Archive Limited. All rights reserved